

Linguistic Advisory Board

Mission

The Linguistic Advisory Board is committed to steering the Journal's publishing focus on the language side of the law across a wide range of subjects, peer-reviewing high-quality academic work submitted by authors from a linguistic background. By ensuring a forward-thinking academic output that retains the integrity of its original argument in theoretical, descriptive and applied issues of legal language and communication, the international Board consists of established and leading-edge academics noted for their expertise in the field of language and law.

Chief Editor

GIROLAMO TESSUTO

Professor of English language, Linguistics and Translation, Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli - Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II
Director, Centre for Research in Language and Law (CRILL)

Senior Associate Editors

VIJAY K. BHATIA

Visiting Professor, Hellenic American University, Athens
Adjunct Professor, Chinese University of Hong Kong
President, Asia-Pacific LSP and Professional Communication Association

GIULIANA ELENA GARZONE

Professor of English language, Linguistics and Translation, Università degli Studi di Milano
Milan Research Group Coordinator, Corpus and Language Variation In English Research (CLAVIER)